

About Messengers of Messiah and Peter A. Michas

Peter A. Michas is the founder, senior pastor and teacher of Messengers of Messiah, an in-depth Biblical teaching ministry that strives to impart a deeper understanding and foundation in the Word of God. Peter's unique teaching ministry combines in-depth knowledge of the Word of God, study of the Hebrew and Greek languages, plus understanding of the Biblical culture and history.

Over thirty-five years ago, while studying the Greek text of the New Testament, Peter realized that the Greek language – a logical, analytical language – was written in such a way as to express ideas in pictures and that this must have something to do with the Hebrew language and the way Hebraic thoughts and ideas are expressed. Knowing that the Bible was written by Jews (and Israelites) about the Jewish Messiah, Yeshua (Jesus), Peter realized he needed to study from the Hebraic perspective for greater understanding of the Hebrew Bible (Old Testament), which is the essential foundation of the New Testament.

Understanding Biblical history and culture, language and customs, the true Biblical Holy Days (Appointed Times of the Lord), etc. is essential to understanding the true meaning and depth of the Word of God. Restoring the true Biblical Roots of the Word of God brings forth a much deeper, more meaningful, and powerful insight and understanding of God's Living Word.

In addition, Peter understood that it is essential to understand the history of Christianity, from the first-century church in its original form and how it changed and developed over time, especially under the influence of paganism and Roman-Greek philosophic thought. Long ago, Christianity was robbed of its true Biblical Roots, as pagan holidays, traditions, beliefs, practices, etc. were absorbed from the pagan world.

Peter's Greek heritage provides him with a unique understanding of Mediterranean culture and history, as well as the Greek language. He graduated from Bethesda Bible College in San Diego, California and began a 501(c)3 not-for-profit nondenominational ministry in 1980. Peter has also worked with the Israel Foreign Ministry office to promote a better understanding between Christian and Jewish communities. He has hosted a radio program and also been a guest on various radio and TV broadcasts. Peter has hosted many Israel tours with a highly educational and exciting perspective of the Land of Israel, including its history, archaeology, and Biblical connection. Peter currently teaches in Highland, California, and is assisted by his wife, Christie.
